

Work in Progress Seminar Autumn 2023

The seminar provides (early career) researchers in the history of medicine and science with a regular platform for sharing and discussing their work. It will take place on zoom from 15h-16:30h.

Papers will be pre-circulated. If you would like to participate in one of all of the sessions (and/or present a paper in a future meeting), please send an email to l.k.haushofer2@uva.nl or felix.riemann@unifr.ch.
